WAYMO'S MOTION FOR RELIEF FROM NON-DISPOSITIVE PRETRIAL ORDER OF MAGISTRATE JUDGE (DKT. 881)

1 Pursuant to Civil L.R. 72-2, Plaintiff Waymo objects to the Magistrate Judge's Order Re: 2 Waymo's Motion to Compel (Dkt. 881) (the "Order") insofar as it holds Otto Trucking is not 3 obligated to provide information and documents in the custody, control, or possession of Anthony 4 Levandowski, who is Otto Trucking's Executive Chairman, Managing Member, and 5 6 Respectfully, the Court's reasoning for this holding, that "Mr. Levandowski has refused to 7 cooperate with any discovery in this matter on Fifth Amendment grounds" (id. at 3), was clear 8 error. As this Court and many other courts have recognized, a corporation has no Fifth 9 Amendment privileges and may not withhold documents on that basis. Otto Trucking cited, and 10 the Order cites, no legal basis to excuse Otto Trucking from providing discovery just because the 11 person in charge of Otto Trucking, Mr. Levandowski, will not provide the information or 12 documents to allow Otto Trucking to comply. Indeed, if this position were accepted, then any 13 corporate entity could avoid compliance with discovery simply stating that whoever is in charge 14 would not "allow" it to comply. And while it is true that, as the Court found (id.), Waymo has 15 raised with Judge Alsup that Otto Trucking's failure and refusal to obtain information and 16 documents from Mr. Levandowski was a violation of this Court's prior orders, that should not be 17 a basis to excuse Otto Trucking from compliance with its discovery obligations. In other words, 18 that Otto Trucking may likely violate the order should the Court grant Waymo's motion to compel 19 cannot be the basis to deny Waymo's motion. 20 For these reasons, Waymo respectfully requests that the Court grant its Motion for Relief. 21 22 DATED: July 17, 2017 QUINN EMANUEL URQUHART & SULLIVAN, LLP 23 By /s/ Charles K.
